Subject Item

FOUNDATION GOALS

Summary Statement

The purpose of the foundation is to lessen the burdens of government and to promote and support the cultural, recreational, and human services needs of the Town of Apple Valley. The goals originally established for the Foundation were; Cultural, Recreational and Human Services. (Foundation brochure attached)

CULTURAL - Our Cultural Goal is to promote and develop public works projects that provide a representation of the various cultures in Apple Valley through architectural design, art, and community events.

RECREATIONAL - Our Recreational Goal is to lessen the burdens of government by our participation in approved trail construction and maintenance projects that enhance public access to, and enjoyment of, environmentally sensitive public parks and preserves.

HUMAN SERVICES - Our Human Services Goal is to support and create programs that benefit senior citizens and children. The foundation will work closely with medical professionals to improve the health and safety of Apple Valley families.
