REPORTS, REQUESTS AND COMMUNICATIONS

BUSINESS OF THE COUNCIL

1. Consider, Approve and Authorize Signature of an Employment Agreement between the Town and Douglas B. Robertson, as the new Town Manager of the Town Covering Terms and Conditions of Employment as Town Manager

John Brown, Town Attorney, presented the staff report as filed with the Town Clerk. Mr. Brown described the extensive nationwide search and the interview process for the candidates. He also stated that the Brown Act requires a short presentation of the employment agreement.

Blanca Gomez, Victorville Council Member, thanked Doug Robertson for his service as City Manager of her community. She spoke of his excellent work ethic and assistance that he has provided her as a new member of its Council. She wished him well and commented that she will miss their working relationship.

Lawrence McCarthy, Apple Valley, questioned various sections of the Town Manager employment agreement.

Eric Schmidt, Hesperia, applauded the Town of Apple Valley for recommending approval of this contract and for having the foresight of selecting such a leader as Doug Robertson. He believed that the Town leadership will be positively impacted through his management skills. He stated that he understands the difficulty in making these decisions, but believed that mind and heart picked an excellent choice.

Council Member Cusack commented on the process and believed the Council picked the right choice.

Council Member Emick spoke about the difficulty in making this decision and he believed the process was very good.

Council Member Stanton stated that this was a long time coming. She stated that the search was extensive, and she was pleased with the outcome.

Mayor Pro Tem Bishop stated that he believed Mr. Robertson was a good quality leader who would be good for our community. He also thanked Mayor Nassif for his guidance of the Town Council during the absence of a Town Manager.

Mayor Nassif stated that he is excited about the team leadership that Mr. Robertson will provide. On behalf of the Town Council, he thanked Ms. Lamson and the Town staff for their hard work and dedication during the selection process for a new Manager.

MOTION
