

Apple Valley Post Cards

FRONTS

BACKS

Lone Wolf Colony
23200 Bear Valley Road
Apple Valley, CA 92307

In 1922, volunteers from Pacific Bell established the Lone Wolf Colony as a retreat for World War I vets. One of the cabins built in 1923 stands today. The Colony is still available for recuperative purposes - free with a doctor's note, as well as families and group camping. www.lonewolfcolony.org

Town of Apple Valley
14955 Dale Evans Parkway
Apple Valley, CA 92307

The Village in Apple Valley

The Village is the original commercial center of Apple Valley, located along Highway 18 between Navajo and the 49ers Liquor and the Danish Bakery, both of which opened in 1953.

Town of Apple Valley
14955 Dale Evans Parkway
Apple Valley, CA 92307

Town Hall
Apple Valley
Civic Center

The Town of Apple Valley was incorporated in 1988. After leasing the first two Town Hall locations, they became homeowners when this building opened in March of 2002.

Town of Apple Valley
14955 Dale Evans Parkway
Apple Valley, CA 92307