COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP

When the scoreboards at the James Woody Community Center malfunctioned in the middle of a volleyball tournament, team coach Courtney Ebmeyer decided to do something about it and secured a donation from Ebmeyer to cover most of the cost to replace them.

Similarly, when the Freedom Festival was at risk of having to shorten its popular fireworks display, Charles Abbot Associates and Best, Best and Krieger stepped up to ensure the event remained as grand as it has always been without having to charge for admission.

These are just two examples of how community partnerships have Supported Apple Valley Events (S.A.V.E.) that create lasting memories for families. More than 35,000 people attend our events in person, and many times more see our marketing and outreach. We've come so far since the first event was held in 1998, where a few dozen game and food booths lined the parking lot, and a few thousand people came out for fun and fireworks.

We owe much of our success to Community Partners like you. Your sponsorship through the S.A.V.E. campaign lets us continue to offer high-quality programs. Please join corporate partners such as Apex Bulk Commodities, Best, Best & Krieger, Alaska USA Federal Credit Union, Cemex, and many more businesses and individuals to bring fun, affordable family entertainment close to home.

Our donors enjoy extensive positive exposure in our community, and the chance to meet your prospective customers face-to-face. You simply cannot find a better investment for your sponsorship dollars. Whether it's special events, animal services, recreation or environmental programs, let us match your sponsor dollars with your passion.

REAP THE REWARDS

People come from all over the High Desert to participate in our high-quality programs. Citizen surveys consistently show high marks for our events and their importance in maintaining a "small town" feel in Apple Valley. Reach 35,000 people at events, and thousands more through ads in the Our Town newsletter, as well as receive exposure on our website and social media accounts. Recognition by the Town Council, event banners and opportunities for promotional activities at events are just a few of the many benefits you can receive. Besides Special Events, you can choose to dedicate your contribution to saving animals, helping the environment, providing affordable recreation activities for our youth and much more.
