DEPARTMENT HIGHLIGHTS

APPLE VALLEY PARKS AND RECREATION DIRECTORS'S MESSAGE

Change.

It's usually Fall when we think of change. There is probably some yet to be discovered ingredient in pumpkin spice that triggers our minds to notice the changing world around us.

In the Apple Valley Parks and Recreation Department we just finished wrapping up the Chayce Beckham Boots in the Desert concert and, without skipping a beat, prepped for the Fourth of July Freedom Festival. We brought in a new fireworks vendor, and we were happy with your feedback. This vendor only needed a day to set up, which gave us three more days to keep watering the grass at Brewster Park.

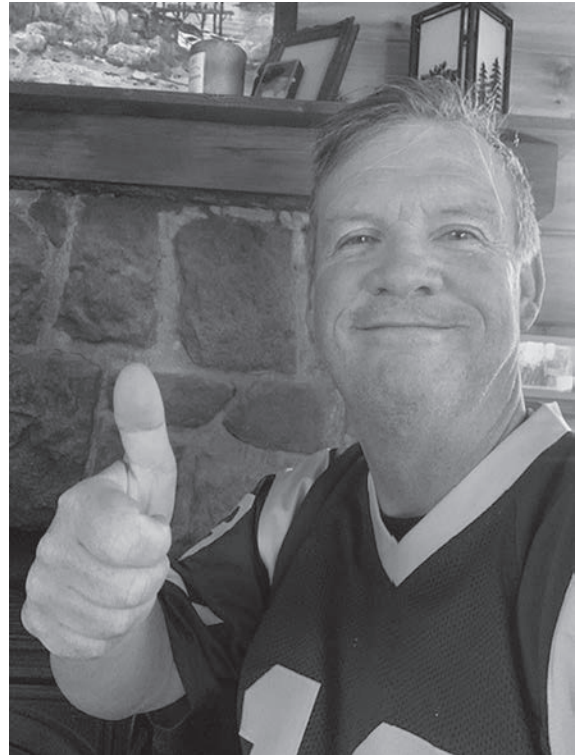

Apple Valley Golf. The Town took over the day-to-day operations of the Apple Valley Golf Course starting on July 1. While starting on July first makes those who work in the Finance Department happy that we could start fresh with the new fiscal year, it made for an exciting transition to bring on new staff during the peak of the golf season. You will notice a lot of change at the golf course. First, our website is now applevalleygolf.com. If you are looking for golf information or just want to book a tee time, you'll find it there. We brought in some "new to us carts" to help with the transition of waiting for our new leased carts to arrive next Spring. We also started serving food and beverage at the golf course for the first time in a few years! We have a lot of positive changes coming, drop by and see what's new!

Staff. You may have noticed some different voices and faces at Parks and Recreation as well. Some of our beloved staff earned promotions to other departments and we have been bringing in a new crop of employees to serve you.

Programs, Classes and Events. You are holding the best information about what activities are offered in Apple Valley, so grab a pumpkin spice something and look through to see what's happening in your town.

David C. Coleman
Apple Valley Parks and Recreation Director

THANK YOU!

As a recreation department, we work to provide our residents with the best possible experiences in our parks, our facilities, and our programs.
