Teen Art Festival

Do you love to paint? Do you have a passion for photography? If you are a middle school or high school student, then here is your chance to shine! Enter your work of art into four different categories: drawing, painting, 3-dimensional art and photography. Judges will award a first, second and third prize in each category for each age group as well as five Best of Show trophies. Entry forms may be picked up starting January 13 from the Recreation counter at Town Hall or the Reference desk at the Apple Valley Library. Deadline for artwork is March 23 by 5 pm.

The Teen Art Festival is a showcase of all the teen artwork entered. The public may vote for their favorite piece of artwork from 11 am - 1 pm. The three pieces of artwork with the most votes will win a People's Choice Award. The award ceremony will take place just after 1 pm and light refreshments (provided by Healthy Apple Valley) will be available throughout the event. This event is sponsored by Friends of the Apple Valley Library.

*Due to space restrictions, the artwork displayed at the showcase may be restricted to award winners and the first 100 entries only. Every effort will be made to nicely display all artwork received.
